

Call for Papers and Participation: AALAC Workshop
Economic History of States and Societies
Location: Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont
Dates: March 10-12, 2023

Dear Colleague,

We are writing to invite you to participate in a workshop sponsored by AALAC on The Economic History of States and Societies, to be held at Middlebury College in Middlebury, Vermont, March 10-12, 2023.

The intention of the workshop organizers is to create a venue in which economic historians and scholars of historical political economy based at liberal arts colleges can come together to share their most recent research, share insights from our disciplines, and discuss complementarities in research and teaching in our fields in a liberal arts setting. We welcome paper submissions from scholars from economics, history, and political science departments at all career stages from AALAC member institutions. We encourage and will prioritize proposals broadly related to historical political economy, but proposed papers on all areas of economic history are welcome.

The conference will open with a dinner and brief introductory remarks on the evening of Friday, March 10th and conclude with breakfast and a roundtable discussion on our fields and the liberal arts on the morning of Sunday, March 12th. On the evening of March 11th, we will have a conference dinner for attendees with a keynote by Saumitra Jha (Stanford).

If you are interested in presenting a paper, please submit a title and extended abstract (~500 words) to Kara Dimitruk at kdimitr1@swarthmore.edu no later than November 18th. If you are interested in attending the workshop, please let us know by sending an email as soon as possible, and no later than November 18th. Thanks to generous funding from AALAC, we will fund travel to Middlebury, up to two nights in a hotel, and all conference-related meals for presenters and participants from AALAC member institutions.

Please contact one of the organizers if you have any questions or concerns. We look forward to hearing from you!

Regards,
